What's a Day of Wedding Director at Sweet Meadow Do? We like to think of our directors as a Logistics Queen. So think of it this way....They keep you on time according to the timeline you have created, tell your vendors where to go, tell you and your family where to be and when. Things like décor, flowers, food, clean up...we leave all that fun stuff to you. While we will happily look over your plans for the day and make a suggestion or two, the entire planning and décor process is up to you. To help with the stress throughout your engagement we have a few planners we love to work with and can refer you to.

Industrial Gift Cart. You are welcome to add a little pizzaz. Located between house and barn. THIS SHELF DOES NOT CHANGE LOCATION.

Black Metal table located in the pre-ceremony area for water and disposable cups provided by Sweet Meadow. THIS TABLE DOES NOT CHANGE LOCATION.

Wooden Console Table. Although she's simple, she loves a good party. Think appetizers, favors, or just more candles. We have quite a thing for candles. Did we mention we have 300+ votive holders in the barn?! 5' x 20" x 30" high

Our newest addition that adds a little something for the man in your life. Located in the "lower bay" on the lake end he pretends to be manly but, he too has a thing for candlelight. THIS ITEM DOES NOT MOVE. 6' x 2' x 37" high.

Rustic Bar. Located inside the center just to your left. Sometimes it's a bit boozy and other times it happily serves Southern Sweet Tea. Either way it's sure to please your guests. Oh, and see how big it is? Yeah, it stays here too. 93" x 27" wide x 48" high

Located just beside the bigger bar is this birch adorned beauty. It's quite happy hanging out here or floating around the venue to serve your favorite cocktail. We have to say it loves the views from the new Sunset Veranda.
