

BEKINS®

THIS IS MOVING.

WHAT NOT TO PACK

When you're moving, some items should not be packed due to safety considerations. Others, such as items of personal importance or perishables, should travel with you instead of inside the moving van. Our professional moving experts are careful to watch out for these items, but you can get a head start by using the list below:

CHEMICALS

Includes:

- Nail polish/remover
- Aerosol cans
- Chlorine granules or powder
- Cleaning agents

COMBUSTIBLES

Includes:

- Gasoline
- Charcoal
- Matches
- Ammunition
- All other combustibles

PRESSURIZED GAS

Includes:

- Propane or oxygen tanks
- Fire extinguishers
- Any other pressurized gas

PERISHABLES AND PLANTS

Includes:

- Frozen or opened food items
- Medications
- Houseplants
- Any other perishables

VALUABLES

Includes:

- Wills and important documents
- Stocks
- Cash
- Jewelry
- Any other valuables

QUESTIONS?

When in doubt, ask the professionals at Bekins. Your agent and driver will be happy to advise you on what not to pack. Learn more online at bekins.com/packing-guides.

