ORGAN LAW PROMOTES KIRSTEN FRASER TO PARTNER

Organ Law is proud to announce that attorney Kirsten Fraser has been elevated to partnership in the firm. Kirsten is a litigator who represents clients ranging from Fortune 50 companies to small proprietorships to nonprofits, on both the plaintiff and defense side of litigation. Consistently recognized as a Super Lawyer Ohio Rising Star from 2019-2023, as a 2022 Top Lawyer in Columbus by Columbus CEO Magazine, and as one of Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in 2023, Kirsten brings excellence to each of her engagements.

“We are thrilled to share that Kirsten is now a partner at Organ Law,” said Founder and Managing Partner Shawn Organ. “Kirsten’s exceptional work ethic, unrelenting focus on bringing value to every engagement, and tenacious advocacy on behalf of our clients is exemplary of our firm’s values and client services. We are excited for the future, and honored to announce this milestone for Kirsten and for the firm.”

Kirsten is a trial lawyer with extensive experience in all aspects of litigation, from pre-dispute investigations and negotiations, through discovery, dispositive motions, alternative dispute resolution, trial, and appeal. Her work includes cases involving complex commercial litigation claims, shareholder disputes, fiduciary duties, corporate governance, real estate litigation, UCC Article 3 cases, insurance, business competition, restrictive covenants, trade libel and defamation, civil RICO, and general commercial litigation claims.

Kirsten is also an experienced internal investigator, having conducted internal investigations relating to the Foreign Corrupt Practice Act (“FCPA”), securities, corporate governance, and nonprofit governance issues.

Kirsten received her law degree from the George Washington University Law School with High Honors, Order of the Coif. She is barred in Ohio, Washington, D.C., and New York.
